

PASSPORT OF THE EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM

- 8D01605 - New Social History of Kazakhstan

THE PURPOSE OF THE EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM	Training of a competitive teacher-historian with universal and scientific and professional competencies, capable of innovative and research activities in the context of intercultural interaction and world trends in the historical science
AREA OF PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITY	Research activity, state regulation related to professional historical education

Learning outcomes (LO)

LO1- demonstrates a systematic understanding of the professional-pedagogical sphere and the subject area “History”, owns the skills and research methods used in modern historical science;

LO2 - plans and conducts research related to a certain period of the cultural and social history of Kazakhstan of modern and recent times, applies interdisciplinary and transdisciplinary research methods and practices;

LO3- critically analyzes, evaluates and compares various theoretical concepts in the field of historical sciences, synthesizing new and complex ideas;

LO4- generates its own new scientific hypotheses, sets out its conclusions and opinion to the scientific community and the general public, expanding the boundaries of knowledge;

LO5 - understands different types of historical sources according to the new social history of Kazakhstan, including narrative, visual, statistical and others, carries out a comparative analysis of the data;

Learning outcomes (LO)

LO6 - analyzes educational resources using teaching and assessment strategies that promote the development of critical and creative thinking, personal education and professional growth;

LO7 - uses new pedagogical teaching technologies (including ICT and multimedia programs and Internet resources) to introduce active research and training activities in collecting information and testing scientific results in a foreign language, participates in various forms of training and practical classes, in discussions of reports, communications, essays, carried out under the supervision of a supervisor and scientific adviser;

LO8- understands the history of the formation of various social groups of society, their relationships in economic and cultural structures and processes, in their influence on the course of the historical development of Kazakhstan in modern and recent times and at the present stage;

LO9- applies techniques of semantic, communicative analysis of the text; determines the stylistic and genre affiliation of the text of the sphere of professional information.