

PASSPORT OF THE EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM

- 6B03101 – «International relations in the context of globalization»

THE PURPOSE OF THE EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM

Preparation of international bachelors with fundamental knowledge, professional identity skills and professionally significant and personal competencies in the field of international relations, contributing to the successful integration of graduates of the program in various fields of international relations, in the context of globalization of world political and economic systems.

FIELD OF PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITY

areas of professional training related to the teaching of international disciplines in foreign languages at all levels of education (French and English), managers of different levels; - government departments, regional public authorities and management; - international organizations.

LEARNING OUTCOMES(LO)

RO1 - evaluates the foreign policy activity of the Republic of Kazakhstan in the system of international relations and uses diplomatic tools to address foreign policy issues;

RO2- uses digital technologies to create a universal cyberspace reflecting global standards in the fields of international relations and security;

RO 3- uses practical knowledge in making adequate professional decisions in all areas of international relations;

PO4- analyzes the essence and importance of information in the development of modern information society, to be aware of the dangers and threats arising in the system of international relations, to comply with the basic requirements of information security;

RO 5- uses theoretical knowledge and practical skills in analysis; international relations and activities in the field of international cooperation

RO 6- analyzes international problems at the global, regional and interstate levels;

RO 7- illustrates the skills of operating business and diplomatic correspondence, negotiating in foreign (French/English) languages;

RO 8- represents and defends the interests of the country at all levels of international activity;

RO9 - evaluates the priority directions of foreign policy of leading foreign states, the peculiarities of their diplomacy and relations with Kazakhstan;

RO 10- predicts the logic of the development of international processes, including in the Eurasian space, especially in the Central Asian region, based on knowledge in the field of history, geopolitics, civilizational development

RO 11 - scientifically interprets the modern international system and analyzes world processes.

RO 12- assesses the economic opportunities and interests of the country in international economic unions.