

PASSPORT OF THE EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM

7M02113 –Fine Arts

OBJECTIVES OF THE EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM

Training of masters of fashion designers with a set of competencies that ensure the creation and implementation of new utilitarian technologies, the expansion of the scope of design projects in various areas of light industry, capable of carrying out scientific, pedagogical, research and management activities.

FIELD OF PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITY

- participation in the analysis of scientific and technical information, results of domestic and foreign research in the field of their professional activity and their application in practical work;
- performing pedagogical work on courses and disciplines in the field of printing and packaging production equipment and technology in educational institutions of various levels; development of laboratory and research complexes;
- development of production development strategies, planning, rationing, monitoring and forecasting of production activities; organization and management of the work of the production team, management of technological flows in workshops and enterprises, ensuring environmental safety of production and compliance with labor discipline.institutions, design organizations, industrial enterprises.

LEARNING OUTCOMES (LO)

LO1-adaptation of philosophical, social, political, cultural and psychological aspects of modern science, as well as effective methods of intercultural communication, using the potential of culture and art;

LO 2-acquires academic writing skills and uses knowledge of basic sciences in creating new areas in their work and conducting research;

LO 3-setting tasks, selecting methods, conducting research, interpreting and presenting their results in the form of scientific, creative and Research reports, Scientific Reports and publications;

LO 4-implementation of teaching and educational activities in higher and secondary special educational institutions in the field of design, as well as conducting educational and educational activities in art institutions;

LO 5-development of educational and methodological literature;

LO 6-solving problems that arise in the course of professional activity on the basis of fundamental knowledge

LO 7-identify the main trends in the development of design and technological processes and find ways to improve them

LO 8-analysis of the quality of a design product in order to update it or create innovative solutions;

LO 9-planning the production activities of a company and a small enterprise;

LO 10-organizes the work of the team, is able to interact with colleagues and cooperate with partners, participates in corporate activities.