

PASSPORT OF THE EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM

- 6B01701 - Kazakh language and literature

Purpose of the educational program	Training of a professional specialist who is able to creatively solve socially significant tasks in the field of pedagogical activity at a high professional level, who is fluent in innovative teaching technologies, who is able to find information based on educational monitoring, analyze them, and use them creatively.
Field of professional activity	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- education;- educational and educational;- social and pedagogical;- organization of management

RO-2. understands the new philosophy of upbringing and education, is guided by pedagogical activity; understands the principles of organizing scientific research, ways of forming and achieving scientific knowledge.

RO-3. knows the basic concepts and basic laws of the market economy and political processes, the basics of entrepreneurial and investment activities;

RO-4. in inclusive education, they can apply diagnostic methods for the development of children of different ages, possess psychological and pedagogical characteristics, a healthy lifestyle, possess various theories of education, education, apply subjectivity, communication, humanism and tolerance, methodological approaches to the formation of national values.

RO-5. has methods and techniques of organizing various types of children's activities, applies methods of organizing physical education, extracurricular activities related to the educational process with modern information and communication technologies (SMART and STEM technologies) in accordance with the research and project work of students, age characteristics of students.

RO-6. works in a multifunctional information flow associated with the development of digital technologies, quickly adapts to changes, is inclined to learn a language, works in a group in a cooperative environment and is able to think critically.

RO-7. has ways of organizing professional activities in a multicultural environment, taking into account ethnic and religious differences, the peculiarities of the socio-cultural structure of society, the laws and principles of national education.

RO-8. The game is systematically formulated in oral and written form in accordance with the requirements of the culture of speech, masters the ways of expression (presentation, description, judgment) and conversational activity and it is advisable to use them in the active development of cognitive activity, improving knowledge in self-development.